How and why we use your data

Operations

For Exam Master to provide the best possible products and services, we sometimes need your data to fulfill that promise. Some data is necessary for basic operation; logins and authentication, cookies to remember your settings, and other items are for back-end infrastructure requirements. Legal Basis: Contract | Legitimate Interest

Improvements

We also use the data as a type of feedback to manage our landing pages and identify where our customer's needs are located. Data is used for traffic optimization, data analysis and research. Legal Basis: Contract | Legitimate Interest

Support

Your contact information is necessary to notify you of changes to our service, or to respond to concerns or feedback you may have with our product. It is used for solving issues via our live chat support, phone or email conversations. Legal Basis: Contract

Marketing

This information is also used to occasionally notify you of new features, products and services, or content updates. Legal Basis: Consent

Consent

- You have given clear consent for us to process your personal data for a specific purpose.
- You can always change your mind, if you decide to withdraw your consent, and we do not have an alternative legal basis for processing that information, then we will stop processing your personal data. Contact us at support@exammaster.com

Contract

- Processing your data is necessary for a contract you have with us, or because we have asked you to take specific steps before entering into that contract.

Legitimate Interests

- Sometimes processing your data is necessary for our legitimate interests. These interests include:
 - gaining insights from your behavior within our application or on our website
 - delivering, developing and improving Exam Master applications and websites.
 - enabling us to enhance, customize our modify our services for your experience.
 - determining the effectiveness of marketing campaigns.
 - improving the security of your data.
- In all cases, legitimate interests are only valid if not outweighed by your rights and interests.

Your privacy choices and rights

CHOICES

You can choose not to provide us with personal data

If you choose to do this, you can continue using and browsing our website and its pages, but we will be unable to process any transactions without personal data.

You can turn off cookies in your browser by changing its settings

You can block cookies by activating a setting within your browser that allows you to refuse cookies. You can also delete cookies through your browser settings. If you turn off cookies, you can continue to use the website and browse its pages, but some services we use may not work effectively or might cause problems. Please see your chosen browser's help documents for information on how to change those settings.

You can ask us not to use your data for marketing

We will inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your data for marketing and if third parties are involved. You can opt out from marketing by emailing us at support@exammaster.com.

RIGHTS

You can exercise your rights by sending us an email at support@exammaster.com

You have the right to access information we hold about you

This includes the right to ask us information about:

- The categories of data we are processing
- The purpose of data processing
- How long the data will be stored and the criteria used to determine that period
- Your other rights regarding our use of your data

We will provide you the information within one month of your request, unless doing so would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of another individual. If that is the case, you will be informed in that same period that we can not meet your request for that reason.

You have the right to make us correct any inaccurate personal data about you

You can object to us using our data for making automated decisions about you

We may use your data to determine whether we should let you know information that might be relevant to you (for example, customizing emails sent to you based on your behavior or relationship with our system.)

You have the right to port your data to another service

We will give you a copy of all data on you that we hold in a CSV or other format so that you can provide it to another service. If you ask and it is technically possible, we can also directly provide that data to the other service on your behalf. We will not do so to the extent that this involves disclosing data about any other individual.

You have the right to be 'forgotten' by us

You can do this by asking us to erase any personal data we hold about you, if it is no longer necessary for us to hold the data for the purposes of your use of our system.

How secure is the data we collect?

We have physical and electronic procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. For more information on our efforts to ensure your data is held in a secure manner, please see our data security policy.

Please remember:

- You provide personal data at your own risk: unfortunately, no data transmission is 100% secure
 - You are responsible for your username and password: keep them secret and safe
 - If you believe your privacy has been breached, please contact us immediately at support@exammaster.com

Where do we store the data?

The personal data we collect is processed at our office in Newark, Delaware and in any data processing facilities operated by third parties identified below.

By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing by us. If we transfer or store your information outside of this way, we will take steps to ensure that your privacy rights continue to be protected as outlined in this Privacy Policy.

How long do we store your data?

We will archive and stop actively using personal identifiable information about you within 18 months of the last time you used Juro. We will delete your personal data from our archives no later than 7 years from the last time you used Exam Master or as agreed with you in any separate contract.

Third parties who process your data

In our industry, third parties are often used to host applications and databases, facilitate communication with customers, provide email services, etc. Exam Master chooses those third parties based on their ability to provide the tools we need without compromising the experience or security of our clients and users.

When we do this, sometimes it is necessary for us to share data with them to enable those services to work well. In those instances, your data is only shared when strictly necessary and we take every effort to ensure that those entities take comparable measures to protect that data.

Here are the details of our primary third-party service providers, and the data that they collect or that we share, where they store that data and why they need it.
